

HUGASISTER GOALS

- * To spread awareness about the missing and murdered Aboriginal females of Canada
- * To help stop stereotyping, misunderstandings, and discrimination of Aboriginal people
- * To offer access to reliable, current sources of information
- * To connect people, organizations and initiatives working towards the same goals
- * To create a space of support for those affected by violence
- * To share strategies for success in keeping our sisters safe
- * To give a voice to the ones who have been silenced and to those who are affected
- * To be a part of the solution in ending violence against women
- * To pressure all levels of government (federal, provincial, municipal, and Indigenous) to take immediate action by:
 - Publically addressing the issues and facts
 - Developing a cohesive, research driven, national plan of action with specific strategies, dates of implementation, and review processes to ensure success and accountability
 - Ensuring that there is social programming led in partnership with Aboriginally led organizations that support healthy families, opportunities for youth, and responsive communities
 - Conducting an independent, public, comprehensive, national inquiry in to missing and murdered Aboriginal women in Canada and factors contributing to violence

